EXPERIENCE

"Experienced web developer adept in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, leading a personal project to refine front-end skills. Leveraging these languages, I crafted a dynamic web application, showcasing structured HTML elements and aesthetically pleasing CSS designs. JavaScript functionalities empowered user interactivity, presenting challenges that honed my problem-solving prowess. Overcoming these hurdles strengthened my proficiency in creating seamless digital experiences. This project served as a platform to merge design and functionality, elevating my expertise in front-end development. It stands as a testament to my commitment to delivering engaging and intuitive web solutions."
